

SureHire Occupational Testing Acquires COHR Health: A Positive Step Towards Safe, Healthy, Productive Workforces and Communities

Calgary, Alberta, May 6, 2024 - SureHire Occupational Testing, a leading provider of occupational health testing solutions, is thrilled to announce its acquisition of COHR Health (Canadian Occupational Health Resources), a renowned leader in occupational health services. This strategic move solidifies SureHire's commitment to delivering comprehensive and innovative solutions to businesses across Canada and the United States.

With over 52 years of combined industry expertise, SureHire and COHR Health bring together a wealth of knowledge and experience in occupational health and safety. This acquisition strengthens SureHire's service portfolio, which includes a full spectrum of occupational health services, including drug, alcohol, audiometric, lung health, vision, fitness-to-work, medical assessments and online safety training.

"Our acquisition of COHR Health represents a positive and exciting opportunity in furthering SureHire's core purpose of creating foundations for safe, healthy, productive workforces and communities," said Kyle Powell, President of SureHire Occupational Testing. "We are looking forward to supporting COHR's clients with our industry-leading technologies and to serving their diverse needs across Canada and the US."

The combined resources of SureHire and COHR Health will enable clients to access a more comprehensive suite of services under one roof, streamlining processes and enhancing convenience through technologies. Clients can expect seamless integration, personalized support, and best-in-class solutions tailored to their unique requirements.

"We are excited to join forces with SureHire Occupational Testing and leverage their industry leading technologies to better serve our clients and ultimately the workers," said Marilou Inkster, President at COHR Health. "Together, we are committed to delivering superior occupational health solutions and making testing easier and more efficient for our companies ."

SureHire Occupational Testing is grateful to its valued clients, partners, and stakeholders for their continued support throughout this journey. The company looks forward to building on this momentum and delivering even greater value to the industry.
